DEDICATION

Having spent this last year in the new Cozad High School building, the Annual Staff on behalf of the student body, wishes to dedicate the 1967-68 annual to the new Cozad High School. Only the student body can fully appreciate the facilities that have been made available to us.

We are proud that the new school is one of the finest in the state. As the pictures on the following pages show, the equipment which we have to work with is the most modern equipment available today.

We the students appreciate the opportunities offered to us by the city of Cozad, architects, contractors, and all who have donated their time, effort, and money, in providing us with these facilities.

As we travel through the following pages of this annual we will not only view our new building, but the heart of our school which is the students.

The bright, cheery halls, one of them being 400 feet long, are painted a variety of colors. At numerous intervals are hung various classical and modern paintings. The speaker system provides the halls, as well as all study halls, with music.

The music-filled library provides an atmosphere of study. Individual study desks, modern easy chairs, large tables, and conference rooms, add to the convenience of the most used room in the school.

With thanks to our efficient cooks, all the students are able to pass through the lunch line and eat in forty-five minutes. The food is excellent and the atmosphere friendly.

The business education rooms are equipped with the latest IBM electric typewriters, comfortable chairs, and desks which are not only attractive but serviceable.

The Home Economics Department offers all the conveniences of a modern kitchen. Each of the five kitchen units are equipped with a set of dishes, a sink, and an electric stove. Additional appliances are the refrigerator, washer and drier, and dishwasher.

The language lab has a private recorder tape deck for each student. They are equipped with a headset, tape recorder, and a set of controls, with the master controls at the teacher's desk.

The Biology Department is a spacious room with enough equipment for every person. Some of the main features of the room are the electric and gas outlets in each desk, the recently filled fishtank, and the growth chamber.

The gymnasium has two basketball cross-courts useable at the same time. The bleachers when folded away occupy only two feet of space, and can be used as handball walls. All gymnastic equipment is available, including horizontal bars, rope rings, trampolines, balance beams, and side horses.

The auditorium is one of the most beautiful rooms in the building. The alternating orange and green seats hold a capacity of 500 people, and the overhead lighting system offers spectacular effects for the various plays and concerts.

FOREWORD

The year has been a busy one at Cozad High School. It has created many memories for the students. As the years go by, these memories will fade. We of the annual staff have compiled this chronicle as a record of the happenings and people of CHS---1968. We hope this will bring back some memories in the future.

Editor,

Mike Zgud

FACULTY

It is a privilege to extend congratulations to you, the graduating class of 1968. I have enjoyed watching your academic talents develop during the past three years. Although you will be leaving us soon, your presence will continue to be felt by the examples you have set.

Look forward to new goals with the confidence that you have received a background from your parents, community, church, and school. If you continue to exhibit the same exemplary qualities, your future is secure.

Again, my sincere congratulations and best wishes for your continued success.

Virgil R. Poore
Superintendent of Schools

A new era began on August 28, 1967, when the doors opened for the first time to admit you, the student, to the new, nearly completed senior high building. This building was to be the focal point of your toil, trouble and joy for the next one, two or three years. Now, as you review the toil, trouble and joy with the aid of the pages to follow I am sure you will see an educational experience that has better prepared you for life.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1964, one hundred and eleven unorganized freshmen entered Cozad High School. That year our class was headed by president, Larry Kauffman; vice-president, Cris Stevens; and secretary-treasurer, Cathy Hecox. Our freshman football and basketball teams were both undefeated and Southwest Conference Champions.

The next year ninety-nine sophomores, a little wiser and more organized, returned to C. H. S. Sixteen of us were selected as servers for the Junior-Senior Prom, and we also had a car wash to raise money for the prom the following year. As sophomores, our leaders were president, Larry Kauffman; vice-president, Cathy Hecox; secretary, Ann Hunt; and treasurer, Jane Dougherty.

As juniors, ninety of us entered C.H.S. for what would be our last year in the old school. That year our president was Larry Brown and the vice-president Mike Willis. Mike Zago was secretary and Marilyn Strausberger our treasurer. In November our class presented the Junior Class play, Hillbilly Wedding. Later on we organized our class picnic which aroused a great deal of excitement. County Government Day was also an annual event on which selected members of our class journeyed to the county seat at Lexington to learn the roles of our country's leaders. The grand finale of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom, "Roman Holiday", held late in May. As juniors, we decorated and financed the banquet for the seniors which proved to be much fun even though slightly expensive.

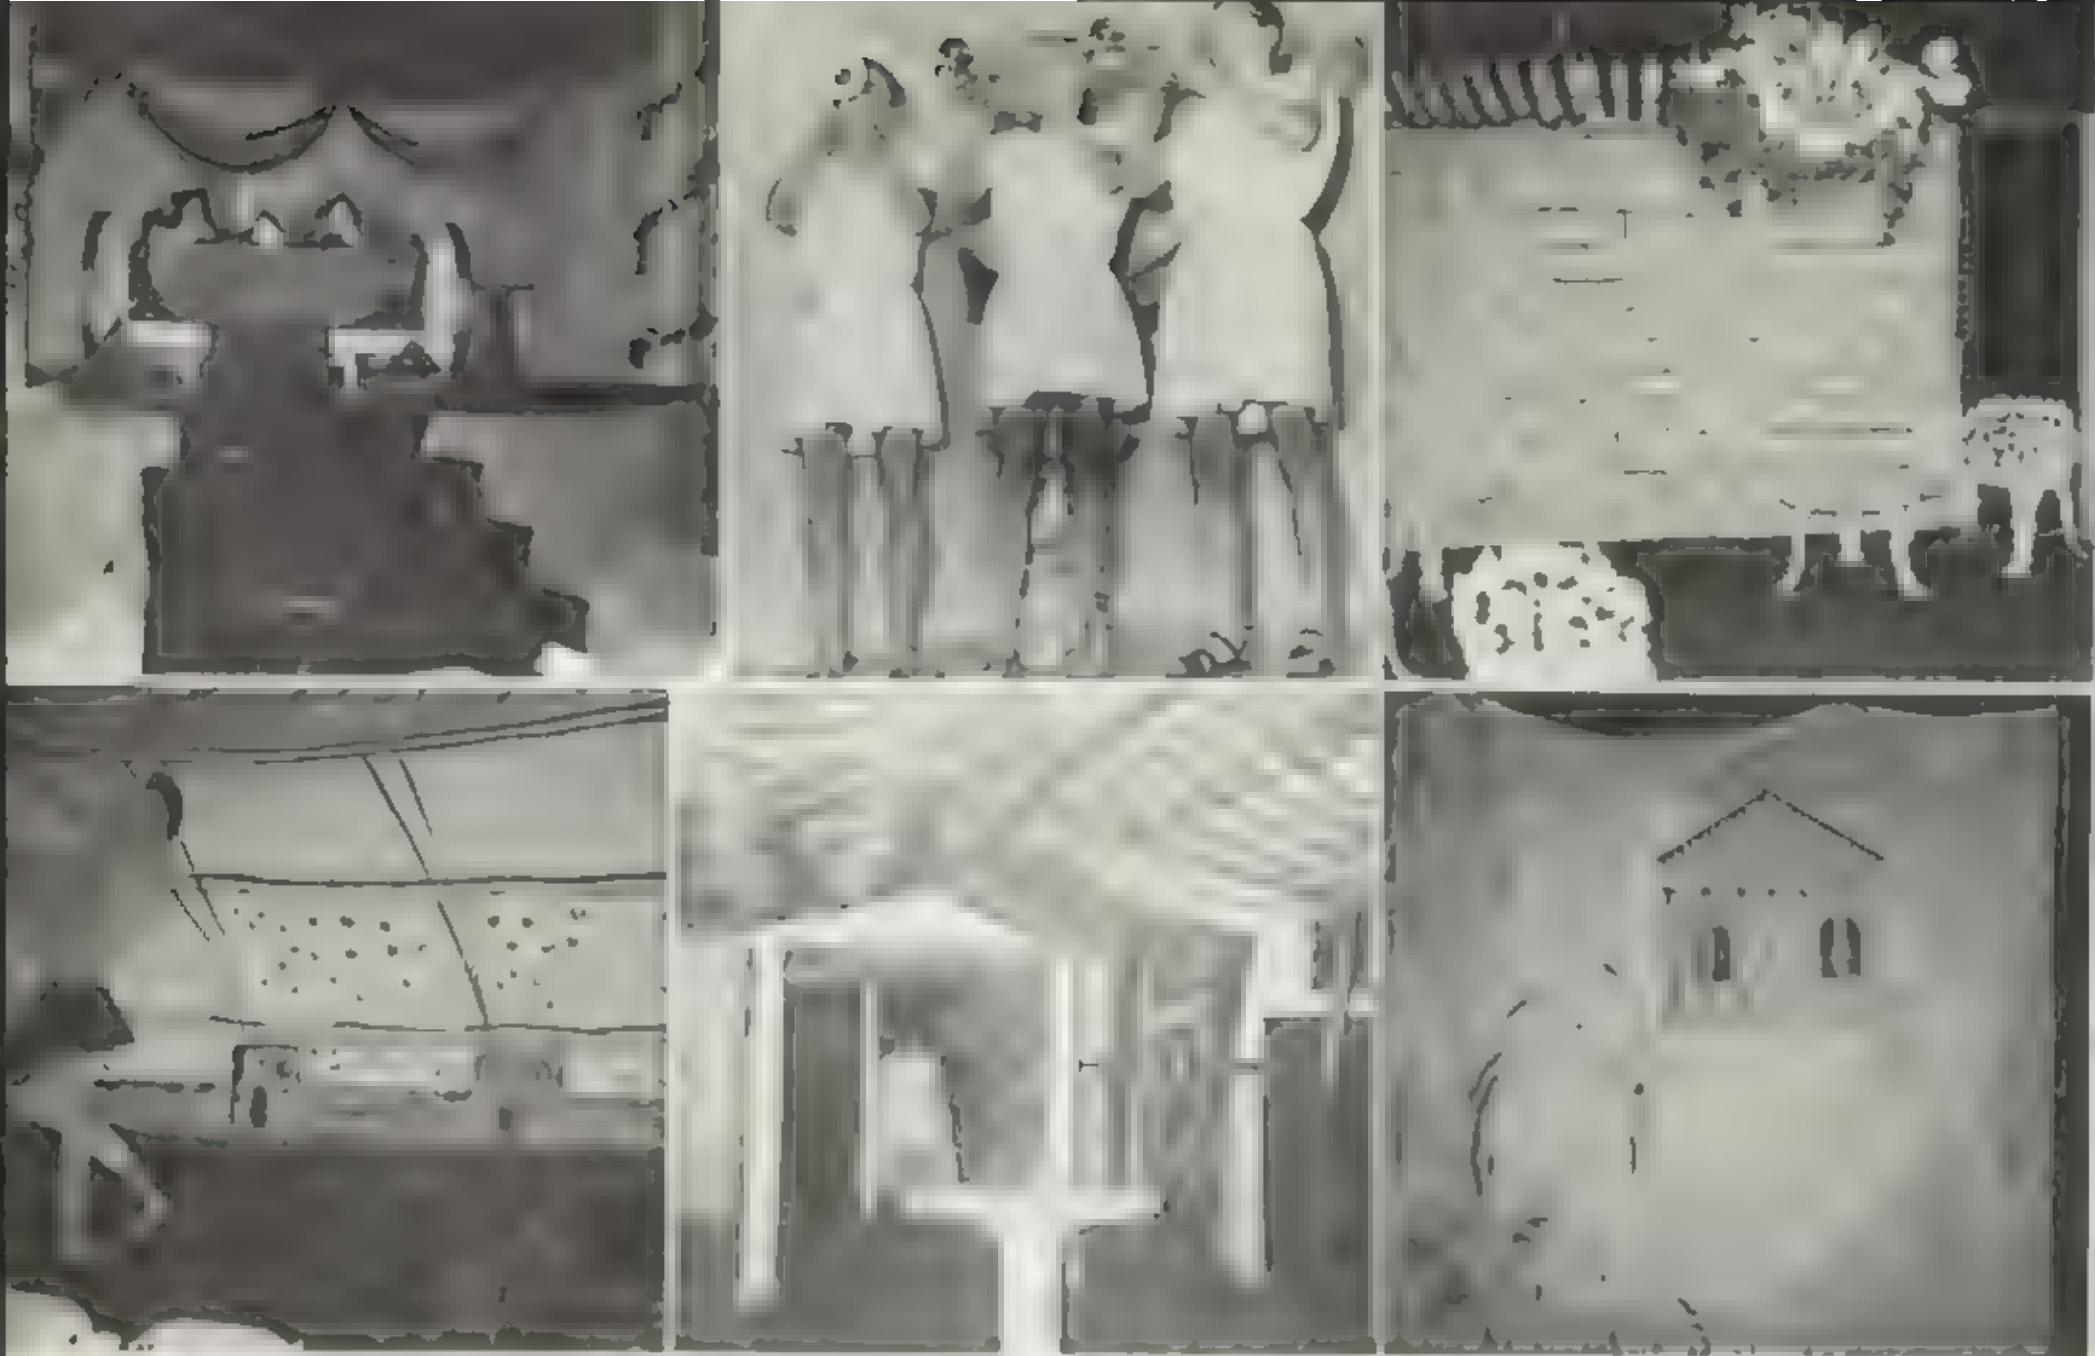

1968 - our last year in C.H.S. - has been our best. Larry Brown was once again our president with Steve Hoffman, vice-president, Betsy Menke, secretary, and Jim Lawless, treasurer. Our football team reigned again as champions of the Southwest Conference, much to the surprise of many people. The basketball and wrestling teams were also outstanding, even though the wrestlers were missing a few key matmen due to injuries.

It is getting to be time for us to think about our future careers, and as we look back on C.H.S., we know that we had the best teachers and facilities that a student could have and are proud to be the first graduating class from the new high school.

The Junior Class was busy this year earning money for the Junior-Senior Prom. Our play, A SKELETON WALKS under the direction of Mr. Godel was the first to be presented in the new auditorium.

Barb Jones, Bridget May, and Kris Schindler were very active in the cheerleading section as varsity cheerleaders. In addition, Cindy Dornes and twirler Sue Schindler led the band in numerous performances.

IN MEMORIAM

The following memorial was composed as a tribute to Alice Rangel, our classmate and friend.

Alice was small in stature, but if good deeds were measured in height, she would have stood far taller than most of the students at Cozad High School. wherever she went there was happiness and laughter, for she was full of fun and energy and her presence always put a little sunshine into every heart.

Alice was a good student, active in FHA, a member of the Rek-A-Myah staff, and a librarian at the school library. No matter how busy she was, however, she always had time to listen to someone else's problems and lend a helping hand whenever there was work to be done. We will always remember Alice for her kind and generous spirit.

As active teenagers, we all realize that death can strike any one of us at any time. Although her life was short, Alice served as a living example of the life we as Christians are striving to live. Just as she took a part of each of us with her, we will always keep a part of her with us, and she will live on in our memories.

The lively group of sophomores hasn't aged a bit! They are still the youngest, but the largest, class of CHS. During the past year they sponsored a dance and a car wash for the student body.

Leading the loyal Haymasher cheering section were Reserve Cheerleaders Wynetta Gentzler, Ann Trusdale, Debbie Whitehead, and Cindy Zavodny. The Sophomore twirlers who helped lead the band in parades and football performances were Sandi Ballmer and Debbie Malcom. The outstanding athletic boys helped to lead Cozid to many victories and to gain the SWC championship in football and many victories in basketball. Good Luck Sophomores!

The Pep Club at CHS consists of approximately eighty girls. The purpose of this organization is to boost school spirit by posters, locker tags, pin tickets, pep rallies, and painting windows downtown. Their main money-making project is the concession stand at both football and basketball games. This year for the first time the homecoming candidates were chosen from the senior girls in Pep Club. At the end of the year they hold their annual banquet at which time they announce the following year's officers, squad leaders, and cheerleaders.

The Student Council was a very busy group in CHS this year and was active in many student affairs. During its activity-packed year the council conducted the orientation program for all of the classes. Other activities included Twirp Week - complete with a Kangaroo Court and mixer, and the Homecoming festivities. They also sponsored convocations, made pennants for the new gymnasium, visited the Kearney Student Council, and also assisted in conducting tours during the Open House of the new building. All in all, the year was worthwhile and rewarding for all of the members of the Student Council and they proved both active and effective in representing the students of Cozad High School.
